The 6th International Scientific Conference

The Application of Sustainable Development: Critical Assessment

The conference's objective is to summon scholars with different scientific backgrounds in order to present their research and discussions on sustainable development, simultaneously aiming at employing different perspectives and approaches dealing with the same issue. This opens the room not only for the new theoretical ideas, but for practical applications as well.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PAPERS

- The papers should clearly indicate the research problem. They should deal with a topical issue, give a solution to it and analyse scientific literature on that subject. The authors ought to point out the research object, targets, tasks, research methods, as well as to formulate well-founded results and conclusions. List of references should be placed at the end of article.
- English abstract of the article should be on the first page of the paper – no less than 500-1000 print symbols, followed by the keywords.
- The papers should be literary edited.
- The papers should be arranged according the order: name and surname of the author; title of the article; English abstract; keywords; introduction with the research object, target and methods indicated; body of text; conclusion; references.
- While submitting the papers the following data about the author should be indicated: name and surname; academic title and degree; research field; organization, occupation, address, phone and fax numbers, e-mail; scientific interests and subjects; other information if it considered important by the author.
- The author is expected to provide the Editorial Board with the 8-10 pages of electronic version of the papers. The papers should be prepared using the text preparation system Microsoft Word (Microsoft for Windows) and the Times New Roman font (12 pt.) and 1,0 spacing, with margins of 2,5 cm on all four sides.
- References in the text should be given in brackets and include the name of the author, followed by the year of publication and pages (e.g. Rosinas 1996, 29); if an abbreviation is used, only the page is indicated, if there is a need – the volume; in such a case no comma is used (e.g. LKŽ XX 56).
